

BIG FOUR MILITARY GOVERNORS END BERLIN CONFERENCE

LONG-SOUGHT WITNESS MAY FACE CHARGES

Great of Congressional Contempt Action Hangs Over Mysterious "J. Peters"

ALLEGED NO. 1 COMMIE

New York, Aug. 31.—"J. Peters," described as head of the Communist underground in America, reached that the United States must be destroyed," a witness at a deportation hearing said today.

Former Communist Whitaker Chambers identified the mysterious Peters as the No. 1 man in the underground at a House Un-American Activities Subcommittee hearing here yesterday. Subcommittee members then threatened Peters with contempt charges for his refusal to answer questions about his alleged Communist affiliations and about the activities of the Communist party in this country.

The Peters case shifted back today to the Immigration and Naturalization Service which is preparing deportation charges against him.

George Hevitt, a negro and alleged former member of the Communist party national committee, as the witness who said Peters had fled for the destruction of the United States.

Hevitt, who said he renounced Communism four years ago, testified that "from the first day was in the party I was instructed that the United States was a tool of capitalism, the main obstacle to Marxist-Leninist success, and this obstacle must be destroyed, including schools, government and churches, which reflect sleepiness."

The House Un-American Activities Subcommittee recommended contempt charges against Peters yesterday after he refused to answer questions on institutional grounds to tell the others what they wanted to know.

The witness is the first to be threatened with contempt for refusing to answer questions in a subcommittee's spy hearings. A dozen more witnesses, refusing to say whether or not they were communists, have cited that section of the constitution which says man can't be forced to testify against himself.

When the hearings shifted here yesterday from Washington, Peters refused to answer questions about Communism.

Peters was summoned before a committee after Chambers, an admitted former Communist and now an editor of Time Magazine, named him as "director of an underground spy apparatus" which Chambers said operated in the federal government in 1934.

Peters' refusal to answer questions balked the subcommittee's attempts to fill gaps in testimony out of Red spying.

Conviction by a jury on a contempt charge could bring a jail sentence. Rep. McDowell (R-Pa.), chairman of the subcommittee, said he would ask the court to order Peters' arrest.

CHARGES FOR FORMER CHIEF JUSTICE TODAY

New York, Aug. 31.—(P)—Funeral services for Charles Evans Hughes will be held at 2:30 today at Riverside Church.

The casket of the former chief justice of the United States was to be moved at noon into the former main body of the church after standing in the nave for several hours.

The family has asked that only friends and members of the family attend the services, police said. A number of public figures are expected.

Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, rector emeritus of the church, will conduct the services. This is accord with a wish expressed by Mr. Hughes, a former New York state governor, who died Friday night at Osterville, Mass., at the age of 86.

Burial arrangements have not been made public.

QUEEN WILHELMINA ARRIVES IN AMSTERDAM TO END HER REIGN

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Aug. 31.—(P)—Queen Wilhelmina has a curfew call today for her year reign over The Netherlands. This is her 68th birthday and the 50th anniversary of her accession to the throne.

It also is the first day of a week-long golden jubilee celebration at the end of which she will abdicate and turn the duties of the crown over to her daughter, Princess Juliana.

Queen Wilhelmina came to Amsterdam yesterday from her summer estate at Apeldoorn. Hundreds of thousands of her subjects lined the streets to pay her homage. She paused quietly at the Hague on the way to resume

Change in Attitudes Aids Oklahoma Judge

Oklahoma City, Aug. 31.—(P)—Maybe it's the heat, or the humidity, but Police Judge Mike Foster was happy today over the change in his customers' attitude.

First, Albert Henry Pillow appeared before the judge with the confession: "I want to say here and now I was at fault in failing to yield the right-of-way. What's my fine?"

Then two scout car officers admitted they had erred in booking Winston D. Churchill for making a reverse turn at an intersection. The cops acknowledged there wasn't any law against it.

Foster tore up the ticket.

Truman Says Egg Throwing Un-American

Washington, Aug. 31.—(P)—President Truman today termed the throwing of eggs at Henry A. Wallace, Progressive party presidential candidate, in North Carolina a "highly un-American business."

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross quoted the president as saying:

"The president said he thought that eggs and other missiles were certainly highly un-American business and violated the American concept of fair play."

"Mr. Wallace is entitled to say his piece the same as any other American."

Ross gave the president's reaction in response to a question at a news conference.

He also announced the president will make a campaign speech here September 13, near Dexter, Iowa, about 40 miles west of Des Moines.

The Iowa speech will be made during a cross-country swing. Other dates and places are still being developed.

The Dexter date is in connection with the annual National Egg Match and Soil Conservation Day.

Ross said the president will travel westward from Iowa, but he could give no details at this time. Further plans, he added, will be announced after the president opens his campaign with a (Turn to Page Seven)

No Split In E. U. Over Issue Of Endorsing a Candidate

Washington, Aug. 31.—(P)—The head of the CIO United Electrical Workers, who is backing Henry A. Wallace, said today there will be no split in the labor organization over the issue of endorsing President Truman.

Albert J. Fitzgerald, president of the 600,000-member United Electrical Workers, told that to reporters when he went into a meeting of the CIO executive board. Nobody is going to bolt the CIO, he said.

The executive board faced its toughest campaign puzzle in eight years in trying to endorse Truman without sacrificing important left-wing unions.

The 51-member group met yesterday but only skirted the subject. It adopted unanimously a legislative program very close to that Mr. Truman asked of the 80th congress.

But at least eight unions—including the powerful United Electrical Workers and Harry Bridges' Coast Longshoremen—were lined up for Henry Wallace and his third party candidacy last January when the executive board last took up the CIO's political stand.

CIO President Philip Murray said it could be "assumed" that the board would endorse a presidential candidate at today's meeting because the CIO has been so closely committed to the same objectives as Mr. Truman, there was little doubt that he would get the nod rather than Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican nominee.

But how the usually-diplomatic Murray would accomplish the endorsement without an out-and-out rift with the Electrical Workers' Bridges, Ben Gold's Fur and Leather Workers and others, remained to be seen.

A remote possibility would be for the unions led by Wallace supporters to "take a walk" for the duration of the campaign. There were few predictions of such a course, however.

Cause of Airlines Crash Is Probed

Winona, Minn., Aug. 31.—(P)—Investigators sought today to determine whether lightning caused the fatal crash Sunday of a Northwest Airlines passenger plane during a severe electrical and wind storm.

Thirty-seven persons including three crew members died as the Minneapolis-to-Chicago plane—a Martin 2-P-2—cracked up in a wooded ravine on a Mississippi river bluff at nearby Fountain City, Minn. Last night the bodies were removed yesterday.

The company said preliminary investigation gave no reason to believe structural or mechanical failure caused the crash.

The only Pennsylvania on the casualty list was John W. Tinker, 45, of Philadelphia, a salesman of the Rayon Division of E. I. duPont de Nemours & Co., Inc. He was a native of Pittsburgh.

Brothers Killed in Plane Accident

New Alexandria, Aug. 31.—(P)—Two brothers were killed last night as their two-place plane crashed in a field near the New Alexandria airport.

The victims were Leo Paschall, 50, of New Alexandria, and John Paschall, 44, of Croton-on-the-Hudson.

Capt. Thomas Dougherty of the state police, said the only eyewitness told him the plane went into a spin while at a comparatively low altitude. It did not burn when it hit the ground.

Dougherty said Leo was believed to have been the pilot and added that he had flown several hours. His brother, John, had arrived only two days ago on a visit.

PLANES FLYING INLAND

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31.—(P)—More than a score of navy planes landed here last night as military authorities evacuated aircraft inland from the hurricane-threatened Atlantic coast area. Most of the planes refueled and flew to other fields in the east. About 10 remained here.

Boys In Younger Bracket Are Being Counted For Draft Today

OPENING DAY SHOWS LIGHT ENROLLMENT

Most of 25-Year-Olds Expected to be Included in Exempt Section For Various Reasons

85 SIGNED UP HERE

One hundred and 28 men signed up for Selective Service yesterday on the opening day of registration at the five high school registration centers in Warren county, a survey showed today.

The registrations were conducted at Warren, Sheffield, Youngsville, Sugar Grove and Tidoute high schools for all 26-year-old males who were born in the period from Aug. 30, 1922 through Dec. 31, 1922.

Those required by the 1948 Selective Service law to sign up today and tomorrow at the same registration centers are all males born during the calendar year of 1923.

Eighty-five of the first-day registrants signed up at Warren high school. Twenty-four registered at Youngsville, nine at Tidoute, five at Sheffield and three at Sugar Grove.

By The Associated Press

It was the younger-bracket 25 year olds' turn today to step up and be counted for the peacetime draft.

But not until some nine and a half million men 18 through 25 have filled out the questionnaires by September 19 will Selective Service officials be able to complete the job of classifying this vast collection of American youth.

Most of the 25-year olds are expected to be included in the exempt service or dependency ratings. Selective Service officials have indicated (Turn to Page Seven)

Post Warnings for Big Blow

Hurricane warnings were posted from Wilmington (1) to Cape Hatteras (2), as the vicious storm, first discovered last Thursday 1200 miles southeast of Florida, was expected to hit the storm-scarred North Carolina coast. At 4 a. m. Monday, the storm center was at point 3, about 250 miles from Wilmington and moving north-northwest about 12 miles an hour. Six hours before it was at point 4, 390 miles east of Jacksonville, Fla. (5), then moving more westerly.

Storm Moving Up Coast May Miss The Mainland Entirely

Hatteras, N. C., Aug. 31.—(P)—A tropical hurricane moving up the Atlantic coast will miss the mainland entirely if it keeps its present course, the U. S. weather bureau said today.

The bureau warned, however, that strong winds would be felt along the coast tonight.

Wind velocity increased to 30 miles an hour at mid-morning. The forecast for Maryland and Delaware called for strong north-east winds late this afternoon and tonight, and fresh northeast winds along the New Jersey coast tonight.

The U. S. weather bureau said the storm is "apparently recurving slowly and is moving north-northeastward," which would be away from land.

The battered down area, however, was still endangered by steadily mounting winds and pounding seas as it caught the edge of the recurring hurricane.

The U. S. Weather Bureau in a 5 a. m. advisory from Miami said "winds will continue to increase on the North Carolina Capes, reaching gale force this morning and probably near hurricane force late this morning or this afternoon."

The advisory centered the storm at approximately 140 miles south-southeast of Cape Hatteras, advancing at about 8 to 10 miles per hour.

Intensity of winds near the hurricane's center was estimated at 115 miles per hour and covering an area with a radius of 50 to 60 miles. Gale extend over a radius of about 140 miles, the bureau advised.

The coast guard reported heavy seas rolling from the ocean from Morehead City northward along the many miles of outer banks, the vast chain of island dunes that fashion North Carolina's coastline.

The Red Cross established facilities at Morehead City and neighboring Beaufort in preparation for the blow. The coast guard made a house to house canvass of nearby Atlantic Beach warning vacationers and summer residents to evacuate to safer ground but many remained at the beach preferring to ride out the storm.

Hundreds of armed forces planes were flown inland from Carolina, Virginia and Washington bases to (Turn to Page Seven)

THREE NEGROES DIE IN TENNESSEE PRISON

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 31.—(P)—Three negroes were electrocuted at state prison here at dawn today for raping a white girl on the grounds of the Tennessee capitol in the summer of 1947.

Deputy Warden Webb Williams said the three men, William J. C. Turner, 21, James M. Scribner, 25, and Thomas H. Taylor, 33, went to the death chamber calmly.

Gov. Jim McCord refused to intervene in the case after visiting the prisoners in their cells last week. The state supreme court had turned down a petition to rehear their case.

RECALLS EXPLOSION

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31.—(P)—Claimants for damages in the 1947 explosion aboard the steamer Island Queen today were awarded about 13 per cent of their demands.

Erle, Aug. 31.—(P)—Conrad Kemmer, 51, of Erie, died today of a skull fracture after he was hit by a truck while bicycling on upper Peach street, south of Erie. In another area fatality, Donnie Lee Blount, 17, of McKean R. D. 1, died in St. Vincent's Hospital early today. He was riding in an automobile with a friend when the machine overturned while passing another car.

Local Industries Plan To Hold Open House Penn'a Week

Announcement was made at the Chamber of Commerce office today that the plans for the celebration of Pennsylvania Week are progressing, though the committee is awaiting word from most of the Warren industries. Those who have not yet sent in their reply to the letter Chairman R. L. Blodgett mailed under date of August 16 to the executive of each manufacturing plant in Warren county, are urged to reply immediately.

The following firms will keep open house during Pennsylvania Week, September 26-October 2: Betts Machine Company, Paramount Furniture Company, Sylva Electric Products, Inc., Aubrey R. Briggs, Youngsville, Warren County Dairy Association, Pennsylvania Electric Company.

Seven of Warren industries have already signified their intention of displaying their products in store windows throughout the business district but it is expected that this number probably will be increased to twenty-five or more. A supply of window cards is available at the Chamber of Commerce.

Eggs and Tomatoes Fail To Halt Wallace Tour In South

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 31.—(P)—Henry A. Wallace, his southern campaign trail splashed with raw eggs and ripe tomatoes, marched on today toward more southern troubles.

"We shall go on," Wallace said through a staff member who reported the Progressive Party's presidential nominee's determination to continue his tour of the south.

Charlotte and Asheville were today—his third day in this state—with stops at a number of smaller cities en route.

Charlotte's police chief, Frank N. Littlejohn, promised jail for anyone who threw anything at Wallace here during his speech from the courthouse steps.

Although determined to continue the former secretary of agriculture from Iowa displayed anger and disappointment yesterday as he was pelted with eggs and ripe tomatoes and prevented by boo's and catcalls from delivering his messages.

Stopped entirely from speaking and splashed with debris at Burlington, Wallace grasped a bystander by the arm as he turned to and at last night's rally at Winston-Salem, Wallace was hooded long and justly as he stood in the rain and attacked the Marshall (Turn to Page Seven)

MAY DISCUSS MEASURES TO LIFT BLOCKADE

First Such Meeting Since Russians Walked Out Of Control Council In March

WASHINGTON HOPEFUL

Berlin, Aug. 31.—(P)—Russian and western military governors of Germany met for an hour today on east-west problems in blockaded Berlin.

"We will meet again," said Gen. Sir Brian Robertson of Britain, "the date, however, still is not fixed."

It was the first top level meeting in Berlin in five months and resulted from diplomatic discussions in the Kremlin for the past month.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor, said "there will be a top level meeting tomorrow." This did not necessarily mean a meeting of the governors themselves.

Asked if the conference was amicable, an American official responded:

"It depends on what you call amicable."

Robertson said there will be no official statement today. American officials said financial reports of the four powers will continue to confer on technical financial problems.

The State Department in Washington said the governors will discuss measures to lift the blockade and to solve the dispute over rival Russian and western marks circulating in the German capital.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay of the U. S. Marshal Vasily Sokolovsky of Russia, Gen. Sir Brian Robertson of Britain and Gen. Pierre Koenig of France met at the Allied Control Authority building shortly before the scheduled 5 p. m. (10 A. M. EST) time for the meeting.

It was the first such meeting since the Russians walked out of the Control Council in March. The meeting grew directly from nine diplomatic conferences in the Kremlin of western diplomats with Foreign Minister Molotov and Prime Minister Stalin.

Francois Seydoux, the special French political adviser at the Moscow four-power talks, left Moscow this morning for Berlin. He was believed to be carrying proposals for settlement of the currency situation which the military governors could discuss on a technical basis.

It is understood that the principles involved in the currency reform situation are such that the western representatives in Moscow did not have sufficient information on hand to refer the matter to the military governors, who have been dealing with the situation first hand.

Germany now has two currencies, the Deutsche Mark sponsored by the western powers and the east Mark, sponsored by the Russians.

Other aspects of local conditions in Berlin also will be discussed by the four governors, a British informant said in London.

Asked to elaborate, he replied that restoration of traffic facilities between Berlin and the west, stopped by the Russians because of "technical difficulties" for the last 69 days—would be one such subject to be discussed.

He added, however, that it is unlikely the Berlin blockade will be lifted until "the second phase of the Moscow talks" is completed.

In Moscow, informers said there is little chance of a four-power meeting today. The representatives of the west conferred with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at the Kremlin yesterday.

Authoritative London sources, both British and American, said Berlin talk today will take up a currency deal on the basis of principles agreed upon in Moscow.

Hurricane May Bring Period Of Cloudy and Rainy Weather

By The Associated Press

Most Pennsylvanians—except for a scattering of nightwatchmen, newspapermen and disk jockeys—enjoyed a good night's sleep last night for the first time since last Thursday.

The reason—cooling breezes and showers that brought relief from the heat wave which had gripped the state for five days.

The relief-bringing winds bore promise of more than lowered temperatures, however.

The weather bureau said the breezes now being felt in most portions of Pennsylvania and adjoining states are a direct result of the hurricane moving toward the south Atlantic seacoast in the vicinity of North Carolina.

Unless that hurricane shifts its path, the weatherman said, Pennsylvania will have a period of cloudy, rainy weather in the next few days.

As a precautionary measure, army, navy and marine corps planes were ordered moved from all bases within 100 miles of the coastal areas. Among the fields receiving large numbers of the evacuated aircraft was Olmstead Field near Harrisburg.

In Philadelphia, the weatherman said yesterday's high recorded temperature was 93, while today's (Turn to Page Seven)

LONG-BOUGHT WITNESS MAY FACE CHARGES

Threat of Congressional Contempt Action Hangs Over Mysterious "J. Peters"

ALLEGED NO. 1 COMMIE

New York, Aug. 31.—(P)—"J. Peters," scribbled as head of the Communist underground in America, reached the United States last night, a witness at a deportation hearing said today.

Former Communist Whittaker Chambers identified the mysterious Peters as the No. 1 man in the underground at a House Un-American Activities Subcommittee hearing here yesterday.

Subcommittee members then threatened Peters with contempt charges for his refusal to answer questions about his alleged Communist affiliations and about the activities of the Communist party in this country.

The Peters case shifted back today to the Immigration and Naturalization Service which is preventing deportation charges against him.

George Hewitt, a negro and alleged former member of the Communist party national committee, was the witness who said Peters fled for the destruction of the United States.

Hewitt, who said he renounced Communism four years ago, testified that "From the first day was in the party I was instructed that the United States was a tool of capitalism, the main obstacle to Marxist-Leninist success, and this obstacle must be destroyed, including schools, government and churches, which reflect sleep."

The House Un-American Activities Subcommittee recommended contempt charges against Peters yesterday after he refused on institutional grounds to tell the subcommittee what they wanted to know.

The witness is the first to be threatened with contempt for refusing to answer questions in the subcommittee's spy hearings. A dozen more witnesses, refusing to say whether or not they were Communists, have cited that section of the constitution which says a man cannot be forced to testify against himself.

When the hearings shifted here yesterday from Washington, Peters refused to answer questions on Communist charges.

Peters was summoned before a committee after Chambers, a miffed former Communist and an editor of Time Magazine, named him as "director of an underground spy apparatus" which Chambers said operated in the federal government in 1934.

Peters' refusal to answer questions balked the subcommittee's attempt to fill gaps in testimony on Red spying.

Conviction by a jury on a contempt charge could bring a jail sentence. Rep. McDowell (R-Pa.), chairman of the subcommittee, said Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.), the member at the hearing, agreed that Peters should be cited for contempt.

No Split In E. U. Over Issue Of Endorsing a Candidate

Washington, Aug. 31.—(P)—The head of the CIO United Electrical Workers, who is backing Henry A. Wallace, said today there will be no split in the labor organization over the issue of endorsing President Truman.

Alburt J. Fitzgerald, president of the 600,000-member United Electrical Workers, told reporters when he went into a meeting of the CIO executive board. Nobody is going to bolt the CIO, he said.

The executive board faced its years in trying to endorse Truman without sacrificing important left-wing unions.

The 51-member group met yesterday but only skirted the subject. It adopted—unanimously—a legislative program very close to that Mr. Truman asked of the 50th congress.

CIO President Philip Murray said it could be "assumed" that the board would endorse a presidential candidate at today's meeting, because the CIO has been so closely committed to the same objectives as Mr. Truman, there was little doubt that he would get the nod rather than Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican nominee.

But how the usually-diplomatic Murray would accomplish the endorsement without an out-and-out rift with the Electrical Workers, Bridges, Ben Gold's Fur and Leather Workers and others, remained to be seen.

A remote possibility would be for the unions led by Wallace supporters to "take a walk" for the duration of the campaign. There were few predictions of such a course, however.

ITES FOR FORMER CHIEF JUSTICE TODAY

New York, Aug. 31.—(P)—Funeral services for Charles Evans Hughes will be held at 2:30 today at Riverside Church.

The casket of the former chief justice of the United States will be moved at noon into the loft main body of the church after resting in the nave for several hours.

The family has asked that only friends and members of the family attend the services, police said. A number of public figures are expected.

The Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, rector emeritus of the church, will conduct the services. This is in accord with a wish expressed by Mr. Hughes, a former New York state governor, who died Friday night at Osterville, Mass., at the age of 86.

Burial arrangements have not been made public.

Queen Wilhelmina Arrives In Amsterdam To End Her Reign

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, Aug. 31.—(P)—Queen Wilhelmina takes a curtain call today for her 25-year reign over The Netherlands. This is her 68th birthday and the 50th anniversary of her accession to the throne.

It also is the first day of a week-long golden jubilee celebration at the end of which she will abdicate and turn the duties of state over to her daughter, Princess Juliana.

Queen Wilhelmina came to Amsterdam yesterday from her country estate at Apeldoorn. Hundreds of thousands of her subjects lined the streets to pay her homage. She paused quietly at the Hague on the way to resume the duties of the throne which have been exercised by Juliana as princess regent.

Amsterdam turned on the jubilee spirit last night. Colored lights blazed up all over the city and a carnival atmosphere took hold. Enough visitors are expected to double the city's normal population of 800,000.

Nevertheless, the feeling of gaiety is tempered by the realization that this week marks the end of the reign of Wilhelmina, who is deeply respected in this land. She will step down just before noon Saturday and the crown will pass to Juliana, 39-year-old mother of four daughters. The formal investiture will take place Monday.

Boys In Younger Bracket Are Being Counted For Draft Today

OPENING DAY SHOWS LIGHT ENROLLMENT

Most of 25-Year-Olds Expected to be Included In Exempt Section For Various Reasons

85 SIGNED UP HERE

One hundred and 26 men signed up for Selective Service yesterday on the opening day of registration at the five high school registration centers in Warren county, a survey showed today.

The registrations were conducted at Warren, Sheffield, Youngsville, Sugar Grove and Tidoute high schools for all 26-year-old males who were born in the period from Aug. 30, 1922 through Dec. 31, 1922.

Those required by the 1948 Selective Service law to sign up today and tomorrow at the same registration centers are all males born during the calendar year of 1923.

Eighty-five of the first-day registrants signed up at Warren high school. Twenty-four registered at Youngsville, nine at Tidoute, five at Sheffield and three at Sugar Grove.

By The Associated Press

It was the younger-bracket 25 year olds' turn today to step up and be counted for the peacetime draft.

But not until some nine and a half million men 18 through 25 have filled out the questionnaires by September 19 will Selective Service officials be able to complete the job of classifying this vast collection of American youth.

Most of the 25-year olds are expected to be included in the exempt section because of previous service or dependency ratings. Selective Service officials have indicated (Turn to Page Seven)

Cause of Airlines Crash Is Probed

Winona, Minn., Aug. 31.—(P)—Investigators sought today to determine whether lightning caused the fatal crash Sunday of a Northwest Airlines passenger plane during a severe electrical and wind storm.

Thirty-seven persons including three crew members died as the Minneapolis-St. Paul plane— a Martin 2-P-2—crashed up in a wooded ravine on a Mississippi river bluff at nearby Fountain City, Wis. Last of the bodies were removed yesterday.

The company said preliminary investigation gave no reason to believe structural or mechanical failure caused the crash.

The only Pennsylvania on the casualty list was John W. Tinker, 45, of Philadelphia, a salesman for the Rayon Division of E. I. duPont de Nemours Co., Inc. He was a native of Pittsburgh.

Brothers Killed In Plane Accident

New Alexandria, Aug. 31.—(P)—Two brothers were killed last night as their two-place plane crashed in a field near the New Alexandria airport.

The victims were Leo Paschall, 50, of New Alexandria, and John Paschall, 44, of Croton-on-the-Hudson.

Capt. Thomas Dougherty of the state police, said the only eyewitness told him the plane went into a spin while at a comparatively low altitude. It did not burn when it hit the ground.

Dougherty said Leo was believed to have been the pilot and added that he had flown several hours. His brother, John, had arrived only two days ago on a visit.

PLANES FLYING INLAND

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31.—(P)—More than a score of navy planes landed here last night as military authorities evacuated aircraft inland from the hurricane-threatened Atlantic coast area. Most of the planes refueled and flew to other fields in the east. About 10 remained here.

Post Warnings for Big Blow

Hurricane warnings were posted from Wilmington (1) to Cape Hatteras (2), as the vicious storm, first discovered last Thursday 1200 miles southeast of Florida, was expected to hit the storm-scarred North Carolina coast. At 4 a. m. Monday, the storm center was at point 3, about 250 miles from Wilmington and moving north-northwest about 12 miles an hour. Six hours before it was at point 4, 390 miles east of Jacksonville, Fla. (5), then moving more westerly.

Storm Moving Up Coast May Miss The Mainland Entirely

Hatteras, N. C., Aug. 31.—(P)—A tropical hurricane moving up the Atlantic coast will miss the mainland entirely if it keeps its present course, the U. S. weather bureau said today.

The bureau warned, however, that strong winds would be felt along the coast tonight.

Wind velocity increased to 30 miles an hour at mid-morning. The forecast for Maryland and Delaware called for strong northeast winds late this afternoon and tonight, and fresh northeast winds along the New Jersey coast tonight.

The U. S. weather bureau said the storm is "apparently recurring slowly and is moving north-northeastward," which would be away from land.

The battered down area, however, was still endangered by steadily mounting winds and pounding seas as it caught the edge of the recurring hurricane.

The U. S. Weather Bureau in a 5 a. m. advisory from Miami said "winds will continue to increase on the North Carolina Capes, reaching gale force this morning and probably near hurricane force late this morning or this afternoon."

The advisory centered the storm at approximately 140 miles south-southeast of Cape Hatteras, advancing at about 8 to 10 miles per hour.

Intensity of winds near the hurricane's center was estimated at 115 miles per hour and covering an area with a radius of 50 to 60 miles. Gale winds extend over a radius of about 140 miles, the bureau advised.

The coast guard reported heavy seas rolling in from the ocean from Morehead City northward along the many miles of outer banks, the vast chain of island dunes that fashion North Carolina's coastline.

The Red Cross established facilities at Morehead City and neighboring Beaufort in preparation for the blow. The coast guard made a house to house canvass of nearby Atlantic Beach warning vacationers and summer residents to evacuate to safer ground but many remained at the beach preferring to ride out the storm.

Hundreds of armed forces planes were flown inland from Carolinas, Virginia and Washington bases to (Turn to Page Seven)

THREE NEGROES DIE IN TENNESSEE PRISON

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 31.—(P)—Three negroes were electrocuted at state prison here at dawn today for raping a white girl on the grounds of the Tennessee capitol in the summer of 1947.

Deputy Warden Webb Williams said the three men, William J. C. Turner, 21, James M. Scribner, 25, and Thomas H. Taylor, 33, went to the death chamber calmly.

Gov. Jim McConcord refused to intervene in the case after visiting the prisoners in their cells last week.

The state supreme court had turned down a petition to rehear their case.

RECALLS EXPLOSION

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31.—(P)—Claimants for damages in the 1947 explosion aboard the steamer Island Queen today were awarded about 13 per cent of their demands.

Local Industries Plan To Hold Open House Penn' Week

Announcement was made at the Chamber of Commerce office today that the plans for the celebration of Pennsylvania Week are progressing, though the committee is awaiting word from most of the Warren industries. Those who have not yet sent in their reply to the letter Chairman R. L. Blodgett mailed under date of August 16 to the executive of each manufacturing plant in Warren county, are urged to reply immediately.

The following firms will keep open house during Pennsylvania Week, September 26-October 2: Betts Machine Company, Paramount Furniture Company, Sylva Electric Products, Inc., Aubrey R. Briggs, Youngsville, Warren County Dairy Association, Pennsylvania Electric Company.

Seven of Warren industries have already signified their intention of displaying their products in store windows throughout the business district but it is expected that this number probably will be increased to twenty-five or more. A supply of window cards is available at the Chamber of Commerce.

Eggs and Tomatoes Fail To Halt Wallace Tour In South

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 31.—(P)—Henry A. Wallace, his southern campaign trail splashed with raw eggs and ripe tomatoes, marched on today toward more segregation troubles.

"We shall go on," Wallace said through a staff member who reported the Progressive Party's presidential nominee's determination to continue his tour of the south.

Charlotte and Asheville were today—his third day in this state—with stops at a number of smaller cities en route.

Charlotte's police chief, Frank N. Littlejohn, promised jail for anyone who threw anything at Wallace here during his speech from the courthouse steps.

Although determined to continue the former secretary of agriculture from Iowa displayed anger and disappointment yesterday as he was pelted with eggs and ripe tomatoes and prevented by boos and catcalls from delivering his messages.

Stopped entirely from speaking and splashed with debris at Burlington, Wallace grasped a bystander by the arm as he turned to his car.

"Am I in America?" he asked. "Get your hands off me," the unidentified man growled and gave the candidate a slight push.

Again at Greensboro, his clothes stained with egg yolk and a shell sticking to his head, Wallace cried:

"I don't mind being hit by eggs and tomatoes, but they would be more useful being fed to children."

"The faces I have seen distorted by hatred are of people for whom I have in my heart profound compassion, because most of them have not enough to eat."

There was laughter and more boos.

At High Point, eggs and tomatoes again were hurled.

And at last night's rally at Winston-Salem, Wallace was booed long and lustily as he stood in the rain and attacked the Marshall (Turn to Page Seven)

New Contest Is Confronting Harvey Taylor

Harrisburg, Aug. 31.—(P)—An independent Republican may end Democratic colors to challenge the return of M. Harvey Taylor, state GOP chairman and right-hand aide to Gov. James H. Duff, to the state senate.

The Harrisburg Patriot said today that John E. Peters, Harrisburg businessman and outspoken critic of the Dauphin county Republican organization, may accept the vacant Democratic candidacy for the senatorial post.

Patrick Curwin, county Democratic chairman, meanwhile refused to deny or confirm the newspaper's assertion.

"Several individuals are under consideration," Curwin said, "and the county committee will make a decision in the near future."

Peters was not immediately available for comment.

However, the move would not be precedent-making for Peters. He was defeated last fall for the Republican nomination for mayor of Harrisburg but after the primary became the Democratic candidate for that office. He lost out after a knock-down, drag-out battle to Mayor Claude R. Robins, who had the backing of Taylor.

The way was cleared yesterday for Peters to accept the senate post when the chosen Democratic candidate William B. Freeland, of Halifax, announced his withdrawal from the race.

In the mayoralty race last fall, Peters was supported by a group of prominent Harrisburg Republicans, self-styled "The Fighting Five." The group broke ranks with the GOP organization to wage what they termed a "clean government" campaign.

The combination of independent Republicans and Democrats posed a stiff threat to Taylor's leadership in the pre-election campaign in the capital county, and prompted Governor Duff to intervene in Taylor's behalf.

TWO CAR FATALITIES RECORDED IN ERIE

Erie, Aug. 31.—(P)—Conrad Kemmer, 51, of Erie, died today of a skull fracture after he was hit by a truck while bicycling on upper Peach street, south of Erie. In another area fatality, Donnie Lee Blount, 17, of McKean R. D. 1, died in St. Vincent's Hospital early today. He was riding in an automobile with a friend when the machine overturned while passing another car.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 31.—(P)—Pickets jeered but stood aside as about 400 workers entered the steel-bombardment Bucyrus-Erie plant here today. Close by were 140 Indiana state troopers heavily armed and ready to quell any disturbance.

The reason—cooling breezes and showers that brought relief from the heat wave which had gripped the state for five days.

The relief-bringing winds bore promise of more than lowered temperatures, however.

The weather bureau said the breezes now being felt in most portions of Pennsylvania and adjoining states are a direct result of the hurricane moving toward

MAY DISCUSS MEASURES TO LIFT BLOCKADE

First Such Meeting Since Russians Walked Out Of Control Council In March

WASHINGTON HOPEFUL

Berlin, Aug. 31.—(P)—Russian and western military governors of Germany met for an hour today on east-west problems in blockaded Berlin.

"We will meet again," said Gen. Sir Brian Robertson of Britain. "The date, however, still is not fixed."

It was the first top level meeting in Berlin in five months and resulted from diplomatic discussions in the Kremlin for the past month.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor, said "there will be a top level meeting tomorrow." This did not necessarily mean a meeting of the governors themselves.

Asked if the conference was amicable, an American official responded:

"It depends on what you call amicable."

Robertson said there will be no official statement today. American officials said financial experts of the four powers will continue to confer on technical financial problems.

The State Department in Washington said the governors will discuss measures to lift the blockade and to solve the dispute over rival Russian and western marks circulating in the German capital.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay of the U. S. Marshall Vasily Sokolovsky of Russia, Gen. Sir Brian Robertson of Britain and Gen. Pierre Koenig of France met at the Allied Control Authority building shortly before the scheduled 5 p. m. (10 A. M. EST) time for the meeting.

It was the first such meeting since the Russians walked out of the Control Council in March. The meeting grew directly from nine diplomatic conferences in the Kremlin of western diplomats with Foreign Minister Molotov and Prime Minister Stalin.

Francois Seydoux, the special French political adviser at the Moscow four-power talks, left Moscow this morning for Berlin. He was believed to be carrying proposals for settlement of the currency situation which the military governors could discuss on a technical basis.

It is understood that the principles involved in the currency reform situation are such that the western representatives in Moscow did not have sufficient information on hand to refer the matter to the military governors, who have been dealing with the situation from the first hand.

Germany now has two currencies, the Deutsche Mark sponsored by the western powers and the east Mark, sponsored by the Russians.

Other aspects of local conditions in Berlin also will be discussed by the four governors, a British informant said in London.

Asked to elaborate, he replied that restoration of traffic facilities between Berlin and the west—stopped by the Russians because of "technical difficulties" for the last 69 days—would be one such subject to be discussed.

He added, however, that it is unlikely the Berlin blockade will be lifted until "the second phase of the Moscow talks" is completed.

In Moscow, informed sources said there is little chance of a four-power meeting today. The representatives of the west conferred with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at the Kremlin yesterday.

Authoritative London sources, both British and American, said the Berlin talk today will take up a currency deal on the basis of principles agreed upon in Moscow.

Hurricane May Bring Period Of Cloudy and Rainy Weather

Most Pennsylvanians—except for a scattering of nightwatchmen, newspapermen and disk jockeys—enjoyed a good night's sleep last night for the first time since last Thursday.

The reason—cooling breezes and showers that brought relief from the heat wave which had gripped the state for five days.

The relief-bringing winds bore promise of more than lowered temperatures, however.

"LIFE IN THE PEACETIME NAVY"

Our peacetime Navy is the world's most powerful fleet. But, stated Chief Earl R. Funk of the local U S Navy recruiting station, it takes more than ships and planes to police the seas, supply our far-away bases, safeguard our liberty, and protect millions of American homes and families. It takes men.

The chief pointed out that every ship in the Navy is just so much steel and iron until a crew of trained men—mechanics, electricians, radiomen, signalmen, and other specialists—go aboard. All of our ships, all of our planes are useless without the men to man them—and men are needed to man a peacetime navy.

The Navy offers greater opportunities and advantages than ever before in its history to a young man who wants to serve his country and at the same time build a happy, successful future. What are these opportunities? For the answers see your local navy recruiter, Chief Earl R. Funk, located in the Post Office Building, Room 207, Warren, Pa., or you can call 2870 between the hours of 8:00 and 4:30.

"LIFE IN THE PEACETIME NAVY"

Our peacetime Navy is the world's most powerful fleet. But, stated Chief Earl R. Funk of the local U S Navy recruiting station, it takes more than ships and planes to police the seas, supply our far-away bases, safeguard our liberty, and protect millions of American homes and families. It takes men.

The chief pointed out that every ship in the Navy is just so much steel and iron until a crew of trained men—mechanics, electricians, radiomen, signalmen, and other specialists—go aboard. All of our ships, all of our planes are useless without the men to man them—and men are needed to man a peacetime navy.

The Navy offers greater opportunities and advantages than ever before in its history to a young man who wants to serve his country and at the same time build a happy, successful future. What are these opportunities? For the answers see your local navy recruiter, Chief Earl R. Funk, located in the Post Office Building, Room 207, Warren, Pa., or you can call 2870 between the hours of 8:00 and 4:30.

The governor of New York gets an annual salary of $25,000; the vice president of the United States $15,000.

Spring Creek GLF To Meet September 3

Spring Creek—Local patrons of G. L. F. will hold their annual meeting at the Community building in Spring Creek on Friday, September 3, starting at 8:30 p. m. Paul Whaley, local committee chairman, announced today.

District Manager C. E. Osbeck, Jamestown, will report on last year's operations of G. L. F., and the program will include a full-color motion picture titled "From These Roots," which depicts the story of how farmers have worked together from the barn raisings of early days on down to their modern cooperatives which they use to secure their farm production supplies and to sell farm products.

Other reports on local G. L. F. matters have been scheduled. Patrons will have an opportunity to discuss G. L. F. policies. An interesting and varied program is being planned.

Two members will be elected to the patrons' committee to succeed William Henry of Spring Creek, and Paul Whaley of Corry, whose terms are expiring. Victor Armistage, Ora Mitchell and Cassius Armistage, all of Spring Creek and Thayne Tubbs, of Spartansburg, continue as committeemen. Waldron Feed Company is the agent-buyer.

Chairman Whaley said that this annual meeting had been particularly planned to give local G. L. F. members a better understanding of the important role which the G. L. F. system plays in the farm operation of its 90,000 members in New York, New Jersey and Northern Pennsylvania.

SAFEGUARD YOUNGSTERS

Opening of schools during the coming week brings a warning to motorists from Andrew J. Sordoni, of Wilkes-Barre, president of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation—AAA, to safeguard youngsters on their way to and from classrooms.

"Approximately 25,000 boys and girls throughout the Commonwealth will be on duty throughout the school term in good weather and bad, to protect the lives and limbs of their fellow classmates," Mr. Sordoni says.

"However, the fine work of these youthful patrol members cannot do the job alone or without the cooperation they deserve from others," he continues.

"Both the motoring public and parents have a direct responsibility to perform if our streets and highways are to be kept safe for school children," Mr. Sordoni declares.

"In cooperating with the movement to keep streets and highways safe for school children," he explains, "motorists will do well to exercise more-than-usual caution in driving near or past schools. 'Above all, every motorist should obey signals from members of School Safety Patrols on duty in the vicinity of schools.'

"Parents can do their part and make a definite contribution to the safety of their own children, especially those who will be going to school for the first time, by working out the best and safest route based on the presence of police officers, School Safety Patrol members and traffic signals," the PMF official states.

"Parents will be protecting their own children if they take time to impress upon them the importance of following a few simple safety rules," Mr. Sordoni says.

"Children should be cautioned to obey traffic signals, to cross only at corners, to walk, not run across streets and highways, to keep from between parked cars, to watch for turning cars and to obey directions of School Safety Patrol members.

"Members of School Safety Patrols will do their part in protecting the school children of the state," he concludes. "It is hoped that motorists and parents will do as well."

KATYDID
The New York Times

Superstition dies hard. Year after year we hear that six weeks after the sound of the first katydid we shall have frost. And year after year the prophecy proves false. Actually, in this area, frost comes nearer eight weeks after the first katydid than six.

The katydid hasn't the slightest connection with frost, and it has no weather forecasting powers. It suffers from the cold, crawls into hiding when the chill comes, and it dies when the cold really begins to bite. It is nothing more than a long-horned insect of the grasshopper family, pale green in color, and equipped with a scraper and a vibrator on its wing covers. It spends the winter in the egg stage, emerges as a very small, pale katydid when spring warms up, and spends the early summer growing. It reaches the adult stage, in these parts, around the first of August. Soon after that the male katydid begins to scratch its wings and make the familiar katydid sound.

The night din is a male chorus, generally believed to be a mating call. The female, unlike many female insects, can make a sound, but it is of no particular consequence. Soon after the males set up their noise, however, the females begin to lay their eggs, flattened little slate-brown ovals deposited in double, overlapping rows along the edge of a leaf. Each female lays from 100 to 150 eggs a season.

Then the chill comes. The males seem to be more noisy than ever. Frost arrives, and most of them are silenced. Deep cold strikes, and that is the end of them until another spring. But as sure as August rolls around someone will say, "Ah, listen to the first katydid! Frost in six weeks."

Monday ushered in a new era in American military preparedness when first registrations under the recently-enacted legislation took place, and according to all reports the first day passed smoothly in all High Schools designated as registering centers by the Local Draft Board, including Warren, Sheffield, Youngsville, Tidoute and Sugar Grove. Board members have explained that registration can be made at any of the five centers, but advise youths to use the location most convenient for them. As mentioned before all males born during the calendar year of 1923 are to register today and tomorrow.

Another and perhaps the final item regarding that red-hot baseball series between Warren and Sheffield, back in 1908, is found in the October 15th issue of that year, which says: "Manager M. H. Shick, of the Sheffield Baseball team, telephoned the Mirror today and stated that he had offered to play the Warren club a game on Saturday next for $1,000 a side, that he had talked with both Dell Gray and Schumacher, and had given them until one o'clock Tuesday to see about securing this amount of money; that he talked with Gray over the phone Tuesday afternoon and was informed that the Warren nine managers could only get together $250 and that this amount, Shick considered, too small a sum to play for.

The death of John Reid, 73, in Oil City last Saturday, is mourned by scores of acquaintances in Corydon, where he kept busy during the years of his retirement at his summer home, and when health permitted, maintained one of the finest gardens in the township. When Mr. Reid was about twelve years of age he was taken to Oil City by his parents and joined his uncle, Joseph Reid, founder of the Joseph Reid Gas Engine Co., which was noted throughout the oil fields for its excellent engine. He was widely known in the northwestern Pennsylvania oil fields, and the middle west, through his connection with the Reid-Reid Company, affiliated with the Oil City concern. For many years he served as a director of the American Petroleum Institute. Much of his business career was effectively devoted to the modernization of the committee on pumping procedure of the A. P. I. His interest in gardening influenced him to become a member of the Corydon Grange.

That feature story that appeared one page ten of Friday's issue, by Cynthia Lowry, A. P. News-Feature writer, about Buxton, Inc., the internationally known manufacturing firm of small bath-goods, was of special interest to Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Young, we are told, since their nephew, Torrence Gordon, a frequent visitor to Warren, and well known to many in the community, is employed by Buxton, Inc., in Springfield, Mass.

This and That: According to the Journal a Corry resident was successful in having his wallet recovered at Columbus by state police last week through a sharp bit of observing on the officer's part—when questioning of a suspect in the case brought denials that he had found the wallet the patrolman ordered him to follow a police patrol car into Corry for further questioning, and it was while on Route 6 that the officer observed a wallet being thrown from the suspect's car, a stop was made immediately and the money recovered. Eva Booth, at that time commander of the Salvation Army, speaking at the Library Theatre October 19, 1908, was introduced by the Hon. W. H. Lindsey, president judge of Warren and Forest counties. The stench coming from the river, at its present low stage, has come to be very ob-

Erection of a "super service station" by the Motor Lighthouse company at the corner of Pennsylvania and Conewango avenue will be started immediately. A deal completed this week transferred the property of the former Avenue Service Station and the adjacent property at that point to the new owners. T. L. Hampson of this city, was the former proprietor.

Exceeding in entertainment and interest the fondest expectations of those who were in charge of the arrangements, the widely heralded Barnes centennial opened this morning with nearly 3,000 present and former residents in attendance.

A forward step to increase the efficiency of the work done by grade schools in the borough is thought by Superintendent of Schools P. W. M. Pressel marked by the selection of a supervisor of grade schools. Closer supervision of the work done by the pupils and helpful advice to the number of younger teachers entering upon their duties for the first time is hoped will be among the accomplishments of such a move.

What is believed to be another chapter in Jamestown's hijacker and bootleg war was written last evening with machine gun bullets. Four Jamestown residents, two of them children, are in a Jamestown hospital and one is expected to die momentarily. They were riding in their automobile on Water street, about 10:10 o'clock last evening when a mysterious car drew alongside and opened fire with a machine gun upon them.

A new use for the emergency generator and floodlights of the Warren fire department was found last night when the equipment was put into use in the operating room of the Warren General Hospital to supplement auxiliary lights after the regular service and the first auxiliary service failed to function during an operation.

Warren county farmers will hold their annual auto tour under the direction of the Warren County Agricultural Association on Thursday of this week, it was stated today by O. C. Tritt, county agent.

Two Warren county girls received awards at the annual 4-H club week at State College last week. They are Joyce Ramsdell and Jean Sanford, of Russell, who were given second and third prizes, respectively, for judging the best days meals.

Shick, of the Sheffield Baseball team, telephoned the Mirror today and stated that he had offered to play the Warren club a game on Saturday next for $1,000 a side; that he had talked with both Dell Gray and Schumacher, and had given them until one o'clock Tuesday to see about securing this amount of money; that he talked with Gray over the phone Tuesday afternoon and was informed that the Warren nine managers could only get together $250 and that this amount, Shick considered, too small a sum to play for."

This and That: According to the Journal a Corry resident was successful in having his wallet recovered at Columbus by state police last week through a sharp bit of observing on the officer's part. When questioning of a suspect in the case brought denials that he had found the wallet the patrolman ordered him to follow a police patrol car into Corry for further questioning, and it was while on Route 6 that the officer observed a wallet being thrown from the suspect's car, a stop was made immediately and the money recovered. Eva Booth, at that time commander of the Salvation Army, speaking at the Library Theatre October 19, 1908, was introduced by the Hon. W. H. Lindsey, president judge of Warren and Forest counties. The speech coming from the river, at its present low stage, has come to be very obnoxious.

The death of John Reid, 73, in Oil City last Saturday, is mourned by scores of acquaintances in Corydon where he kept busy during the years of his tireless at his summer home, and when health permitted, maintained one of the finest gardens in the township. When Mr. Reid was about twelve years of age he was taken to Oil City by his parents and joined his uncle, Joseph Reid, founder of the Joseph Reid Gas Engine Co., which was noted throughout the oil fields for its excellent engine. He was widely known in the northwestern Pennsylvania oil fields, and the middle west, through his connection with the Frick-Reid Company, affiliated with the Oil City concern. For many years he served as a director of the American Petroleum Institute. Much of his business career was effectively devoted to the modernization of the committee on pumping procedure of the A. P. I. His interest in gardening influenced him to become a member of the Corydon Grange.

That feature story that appeared one page ten of Friday's issue, by Cynthia Lowry, A. P. News-feature writer, about Buxton, Inc., the internationally known manufacturing firm of small leather goods, was of special interest to Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Young, we are told, since their nephew, Torrence Gordon, a frequent visitor to Warren, and well known to many in the community, is employed by Buxton, Inc., in Springfield, Mass.

Erection of a "super service station" by the Motor Lighthouse company at the corner of Pennsylvania and Conewago avenue will be started immediately. A forward step to increase the efficiency of the work done by grade schools in the borough is thought by Superintendent of Schools P. W. M. Pressel marked by the selection of a supervisor of grade schools. Closer supervision of the work done by the pupils and helpful advice to the number of younger teachers entering upon their duties for the first time is hoped will be among the accomplishments of such a move.

What is believed to be another chapter in Jamestown's hijacker and bootleg war was written last evening with machine gun bullets. Four Jamestown residents, two of them children, are in a Jamestown hospital and one is expected to die momentarily. They were riding in their automobile on Water street, about 10:10 o'clock last evening when a mysterious car drew alongside and opened fire with a machine gun upon them.

High And Low

We come back from vacation to learn that the doughty women golfers of the Conewago Valley Country Valley Club joined 15 other clubs in an invitation tournament at the Moonbrook Club in Jamestown last Wednesday in a high temperature-low score contest. Among the winners was Mrs. Sidney W. Blackman, who not only had second low gross for the field with a 98, only two strokes over the 91 posted by Mrs. Brown of Corry, but turned in an eagle two on the four par 16th hole. Mrs. George Calderwood won third low gross in Division Two, no mean feat on a contest against some 159 golfers.

On Thursday, Mrs. H. L. Banghart, Mrs. David Beatty and Mrs. E. G. Hamilton represented Warren in the Northwestern Pennsylvania Association tournament played on the Lake Shore course in Erie. Mrs. Hamilton won low gross and low net for the visitors, including Corry and Wanango, with 99-12-77, and tied the gross score for the field with her 89 against Jean Forsythe, who had the advantage of playing her home course.

noxious to south side residents, especially to those living on the upper end of Crescent Park, opposite the point where the Oak Street sewer empties into the stream—they'll welcome the time when the new sewage disposal plant is in operation, and in the meantime they're wondering if the city dads could not devise some means for temporary relief from the annoyance. The Titusville Elks golf team yesterday started defense of its Elks State golf championship at the lodge's annual convention in Reading, with the four-man team composed of Joe Henne, Charley Daly, Benny Krafft and Johnny Dunn, the first three veterans of last year's tournament at Erie. Henne, Daly and Dunn flew to Reading Sunday in a plane piloted by Tink Goodwin. Fritz Kennett, former high school athletics luminary, who is co-publisher with his father, T. M. Kennett, of the Pelham, (N. Y.) Sun, visiting in town with two of his daughters, Priscilla and Fredette, offers a suggestion that could result in a revolutionary change in the method of directing motor-vehicle parties over detours in the country. "I got so annoyed at having to carry those 'red flags' through detours, I began to worry for fear some person would arrest me for subversive tendencies," Fritz complained while in the office Monday. "Why don't they use a white flag, or any other color but red," he suggested. "With all this excitement we're having about Red spy hunts in Washington." Incidentally Fritz had a long chat with Dick Harris, another former Blue and White basketball star, while in the office, and we could not help but notice that they adjourned the visit to the sidewalk later in the morning. Another former high school athlete who returned acquaintances in Warren over the weekend was "Bud" Knabb, who comes up occasionally from Swarthmore.

Blackman, who not only had second low gross for the field with a 93, only two strokes over the 91 posted by Mrs. Brown of Corry, but turned in an eagle two on the four par 16th hole. Mrs. George Calderwood won third low gross in Division Two, no mean feat on a contest against some 139 golfers.

On Thursday, Mrs. H. L. Banghart, Mrs. David Beaty and Mrs. E. G. Hamilton represented Warren in the Northwestern Pennsylvania Association tournament played on the Lake Shore course in Erie. Mrs. Hamilton won low gross and low net for the visitors, including Corry and Wanago, with 89-12-77, and tied the gross score for the field with her 89 against Jean Forsythe, who had the advantage of playing her home course.

HERE AND THERE

noxious to south side residents, especially to those living on the upper end of Crescent Park, opposite the point where the Oak street sewer empties into the stream—they'll welcome the time when the new sewage disposal plant is in operation, and in the meantime they're wondering if the city dads could not devise some means for temporary relief from the annoyance. The Titusville Elks golf team yesterday started defense of its Elks State golf championship at the lodges annual convention in Reading, with the four-man team composed of Joe Henne, Charley Daly, Benny Krafft and Johnny Dunn, the first three veterans of last year's tournament at Erie. Henne, Daly and Dunn flew to Reading Sunday in a plane piloted by Tink Goodwin. Fritz Kennett, former high school athletics luminary, who is co-publisher with his father, T. M. Kennett, of the Pelham, (N. Y.) Sun, visiting in town with two of his daughters, Priscilla and Fredette, offers a suggestion that could result in a revolutionary change in the method of directing touring parties over detours in the country. "I got so annoyed at having to carry those 'red flags' through detours, I began to worry for fear some person would arrest me for subversive tendencies," Fritz complained while in the office Monday. "Why don't they use a white flag, or any other color but red," he suggested, "with all this excitement we're having about Red spy hunts in Washington." Incidentally Fritz had a long chat with Dick Harris, another former Blue and White basketball star, while in the office, and we could not help but notice that they adjourned the visit to the sidewalk later in the morning. Another former high school athlete who renewed acquaintances in Warren over the weekend was "Bud" Knabb, who comes up occasionally from Swarthmore.

Crash Victims Are Still Not Out of Danger

Mrs. Hazel Merenick, wife of Borough Councilman Nick Merenick and their nine-year-old son, Robert, who were critically injured in a two-car smashup in Route 8, near Harrisville Sunday morning, were reported somewhat improved today, although they are still not out of danger.

The impact of the collision hurled Mrs. Merenick out of the car and over an embankment. She was taken to the Grove City Hospital where she is reported suffering from severe shock and a skull fracture. Her arm also was broken and her shoulder was badly injured.

Attending physicians told family members there was some improvement in her condition overnight and some hope was held for her recovery if she continued to improve in the next 24 hours.

Robert, who also suffered a skull fracture, was taken to St. Francis hospital in Pittsburgh, where he underwent a delicate operation by brain surgeons. The operation apparently was successful and he is given a good chance to recover by attending physicians.

Mr. Merenick also is undergoing treatment in St. Francis Hospital. He suffered possible fracture of both legs and x-ray pictures were taken yesterday to determine the full extent of the injuries.

Another son, David, 10, suffered a broken collar bone in the mishap. He was treated at Grove City hospital and later sent home.

The Merenicks were en route to Pittsburgh Sunday morning to attend the Pittsburgh-Boston baseball game when their car was struck by a Michigan motorist, Edward Schlor, of Dearborn, at the Branchton intersection. Schlor suffered a fracture of the arm, and two passengers in his car, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cleek, of Detroit, sustained skull fractures. They also were taken to the Grove City hospital for treatment.

Both cars were demolished in the crash, which occurred, State Police reported, when Schlor failed to stop at a through-traffic intersection.

This is Our Policy...on

- ✓ DELIVERIES, ✓ PRICES, ✓ TRADE-INS
- ✓ FINANCING, ✓ ACCESSORIES

When a manufacturer produces a car so obviously ahead of the times as the Futuramic Oldsmobile, it's only natural that demand for that product should break all records. Add to this today's pent-up need for automobiles—plus continuing shortages of steel and other critical materials—and you'll see why we have a real problem on our hands. We value the good will of all our customers. We would like to provide all our customers with new Oldsmobile cars. But unfortunately, that can't be done overnight. That is why we are taking this opportunity to reaffirm publicly our POLICIES ON PRICES AND DELIVERIES. We believe that under present circumstances these policies constitute a sound basis for "fair play" to everybody. And we hope that, on this basis, we may continue to serve you.

Spelling Bee Conducted By Local Grange

Past Master Fred Simones was in charge of the spelling bee held Monday evening by members of Warren Grange, No. 1025, when routine business included reading of three membership proposals.

A spelling bee was conducted and Mrs. Clara Raymond was hailed as the champion of Warren Grange. In this connection, it was announced a further competition and special meeting will be held in Scandia Grange Hall on September 7, when all subordinate Granges will send entries to determine the winner of county honors and representative to the State Grange contest on October 26.

It was decided the local unit will have a picnic in conjunction with a white elephant sale at the next regular meeting on September 20.

To conclude the evening, a party was held for all those having birthday anniversaries in July, August and September, and delicious refreshments were served by Clara Dalrymple, home economics chairman, and her committee.

Eggs and Tomatoes Fail to Halt Wallace Tour in South

(From Page One)
The crowd estimated at 2,500—about three-fourths of them negroes—set up opposing chants of "We Want Wallace" and "Down With Wallace."

In New York, a state convention of the American Labor Party nominated Wallace and his running mate, Senator Glen H. Taylor, as its candidates. The vote came after the convention was told by Rep. Vito Marcantonio, ALP congressman, that President Truman has "a sordid record x x x against the people who toil."

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 31—(P)—Eggs and tomatoes again were tossed at Henry Wallace as he attempted to address a crowd of 2,500 at the Mecklenburg court house here today.

The attack came only shortly after yesterday's tossing of eggs and fruit at the Progressive Party's presidential nominee, "highly un-American business."

None of the objects struck Wallace, who sought to speak amid continual booing from the throng. Eggs did strike two reporters for the Charlotte News, who stood near trying to hear the words of the former vice president.

Signs were conspicuous in the crowd. One read "Sell your junk in Moscow, Henry."

Through the din, Wallace shouted "I believe there are people in Mecklenburg county who still believe in human rights."

He was subjoined under the name of Peters, but identified himself as Alexander Stevens.

Although it was talked by Peters, the sub-committee heard testimony yesterday by Chambers that he got a $6,000-a-year "boondoggling" job with the government in 1937 through Communist influence.

Chambers said he was being paid as a Communist underground courier at that time.

The witness said he landed the job—in the research department of the Railroad Retirement Board—"within 24 hours" after applying.

Calling the job "boondoggling," Chambers said he was warned not to work too hard, "or the job would end."

Chambers said he landed the job through Peters and two men who he said were government employees at that time—Abraham George Silverman and Irving Kadlan.

Chambers said Silverman was a Communist. Elizabeth Bentley, a star witness before the committee, previously had named Silverman as a member of a Russian spy ring she said operated in U. S. government circles during the war.

Rep. Nixon said Sunday that Chambers' testimony would show "a link between the pro-war Communist underground he described and the wartime ring Mrs. Bentley told about."

ALIQUIPPA DRUGGIST TESTS NEW TAX LAW

Aliquippa, Aug. 31—(P)—Druggist George L. Kiefer who asked the court test of Aliquippa's new wage tax today had his wish.

The borough yesterday filed an information against the former burgess charging him with failure to make a declaration of his anticipated profits.

Kiefer has contended the four mill tax, passed last May 1, is unconstitutional. He previously wrote the borough council he would not abide by it and asked that a court test be made of its legality.

Squire Walter S. Cameron, before whom the information was made, did not set a date for a hearing.

Five Years' Work in One Day

Doing the work of five years in one day 500 farmers and workers gave a convincing demonstration of teamwork at Mrs. C. E. Thrasher's 175-acre farm in Frederick, Md. This aerial view shows a part of the huge crowd which watched the streamlining process. Upper left is a pond the men built.

Girl Admits Starting 100 Fires At Farm

Macomb, Ill., Aug. 31—(P)—More than 100 fires on the Charles Valley Farm, the origin of which baffled scientists and experts for nearly two weeks, were set by a 13-year-old member of the family, a deputy state fire marshal said yesterday.

John Burgard, the deputy, said the girl, Wanda McNeil, told authorities she touched off the fires when other family members were watching her.

Burgard said Wanda told him she set the fires because she wanted to be sent to live with her divorced mother, Mrs. Leona Eagle of Bloomington, Ill.

Wanda and her brother, Arthur, 5, were placed in the custody of their father, Arthur McNeil, when their parents were divorced in 1932. McNeil and the children have been living with the Willises.

Burgard said the girl told him Mrs. Willies is McNeil's sister. He reasoned that if she burned down the houses used by her father and her aunt and uncle, she would have to be sent to her mother.

The rash of blazes attracted nationwide attention. They led to speculation that the flames were caused by radioactive gas, fly spray or roach paste.

INVESTIGATE ILLNESS AMONG GUARDSMEN

Indiantown Gap, Aug. 31—(P)—Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general, said today he believed "the extreme heat" was the cause of the sudden illness of some 50 Pennsylvania National Guardsmen in week.

The guardsmen, all from Philadelphia, became ill at the end of summer maneuvers at Camp Pendleton, Va. Thirteen were stricken at Warrenton, Va., and the others collapsed after arrival by train in Philadelphia.

Weber ordered an investigation into the cause of the illness but said today he will not receive a report until later in the week.

Coincidentally, he noted that 12,000 guardsmen returned to their homes from the military reservation here after two weeks training without any report of illness.

CATHOLIC PILGRIMS AT TOMB OF PIUS X

Rome, Aug. 31—(P)—More than 500 American Catholic pilgrims attended mass this morning before the tomb of Pope Pius X in St. Peter's basilica.

Nicole Cardinal Canali, president of the pontifical commission for the government of Vatican City, celebrated the mass, after which Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, of Boston, distributed communion to other pilgrims.

Cardinal Canali spoke a few words of welcome to the pilgrims, the first to come to Rome from America since the end of the war.

The travelers were luncheon guests of the North American College at noon. Bishop Martin J. O'Connor of Scranton, Pa., rector of the college, described new building plans of the institution.

Opening Day Shows Light Enrollment

ated that the bulk of future rafflees will come from the 22 and 3-year old groups due to register this week.

The Army—which is getting all the November inductees—is expected to ask for another 10,000 rafflees in December, later stepping up the pace to about 30,000 a month.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal in announcing the Army's first all-volunteer draft today said the navy and air force are counting on filling their manpower quotas with volunteers, at least through next June.

The opening day of registration brought only scattered reports of organized opposition to the peacetime draft revival. About a dozen youths who said they were "peace bakers" put on a demonstration in Columbus, Ohio.

One picket line formed in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Draft board officials there reported the pickets said they were members of the Peace and Conciliation Fraternity with headquarters in New York.

Unlike the wartime draft operations, the 1948 version was being carried out swiftly. Each registrant needed only about 10 to 15 minutes to fill out the postcard form.

Long-Sought Witness May Face Charges

to the house committee, pointed out Peters at yesterday's hearing as the man he was talking about in connection with the alleged spying in the government.

The long-sought Peters—54 years old, a native of Czechoslovakia and now a resident of New York—was handed a congressional subpoena as he appeared for a deportation hearing early in the day.

measures to lift the Berlin blockade will be discussed by the military governors in Berlin along with the currency problem.

Press Officer Michael McDermott told a news conference the military governors of the American, British, French and Russian zones will discuss "certain technical questions involved in the restoration of communications."

McDermott's statement was the first definite word that the lifting of the Russian blockade of Berlin will be considered as well as a possible agreement to end the difficulties caused by use of eastern and western currency in Berlin.

The four-power Berlin talks got under way today as the outgrowth of preliminary discussions in Moscow.

Diplomatic officials emphasized that holding the currency discussions means the Berlin talks were set up under conditions satisfactory to the western powers. If not, they said, there would be no discussions in Berlin.

County Included In Milk Zone Plan

Harrisburg, Aug. 31—(P)—A proposal to switch five counties and part of a sixth from the statewide milk marketing area to the Johnstown-Altoona area came before the State Milk Control Commission today.

If approved by the commission, the change will boost retail milk prices in the six counties from the present minimum of 18 cents a quart for standard milk to 21 1/2 cents the price in effect in the Johnstown-Altoona area.

The counties are Cameron, Elk, Forest, Jefferson, McKean, Warren and part of Clarion.

Chairman H. N. Cobb said a tentative order making the transfer has been drafted and if it is posted following the conference, set for this afternoon, the change will become effective Sept. 6.

Cobb said there has been no opposition from anyone on change.

Spelling Bee
Conducted By Local Grange

Past Master Fred Simones was in charge of the spelling bee meeting held Monday evening by members of Warren Grange, No. 1025, when routine business included reading of three membership proposals. A spelling bee was conducted and Mrs. Clara Raymond was hailed as the champion of Warren Grange. In this connection, it was announced a further competition and special meeting will be held in Scandia Grange Hall on September 7, when all subordinate Granges will send entries to determine the winner of county honors and representative to the State Grange contest on October 26. It was decided the local unit will have a pie social in conjunction with a white elephant sale at the next regular meeting on September 20. To conclude the evening, a party was held for all those having birthday anniversaries in July, August and September, and delicious refreshments were served by Clara Dalrymple, home economics chairman, and her committee.

Eggs and Tomatoes
Fail To Halt Wallace
Tour In South

Plan. The crowd estimated at 2,500—about three-fourths of them negroes—set up opposing chants of "We Want Wallace" and "Down With Wallace". In New York, a state convention of the American Labor Party nominated Wallace and his running mate, Senator Glen H. Taylor, as its candidates. The vote came after the convention was told by Rep. Vito Marcantonio, ALP congressman, that President Truman has "a sordid record x x x against the people who toil."

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Eggs and tomatoes again were tossed at Henry Wallace as he attempted to address a crowd of 2,500 at the Mecklenburg court house here today. The attack came only shortly after President Truman had termed yesterday's tossing of eggs and fruit at the Progressive party's presidential nominee "highly un-American business." None of the objects struck Wallace, who sought to speak amid continual booing from the throng. Eggs did strike two reporters for the Charlotte News, who stood near trying to hear the words of the former vice president. Signs were conspicuous in the crowd. One read "Sell your junk in Moscow, Henry." Through the din, Wallace shouted: "I believe there are people in Mecklenburg county who still believe in human rights."

was not expected to exceed 84. Chicago, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Temperatures headed for near normal levels over parts of the nation's heat belt today but readings in the 90's again were in prospect for many areas. The intense heat of more than a week was broken over most of the Great Lakes Region, the New England states and sections of the eastern seaboard. But hot and humid conditions continued in the central plains, west gulf states and the southeastern states.

BULLETIN
Miami, Fla., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Another hurricane appears to be brewing in the Atlantic some 300 miles east of Martinique, a French island in the lesser Antilles, the storm warning service reported today. A steamship, the Benjamin Greigson, told the weather bureau here that she passed through winds up to 50 to 60 miles an hour and extremely rough seas for seven hours ending at 10 p. m., last night. The mercury dropped into the 40's and 50's in parts of the cooler belt during the early morning hours. Blistering heat extended over the western Dakotas and eastern Montana yesterday. A high of 105 was reported at Miles City, Mont.; 104 at Phillips, S. D., and Chadron, N. D., and 97 at Bismarck, N. D. The weather was hot over the mountain states and in parts of California. Los Angeles 95 was the highest of the year. Deaths attributed to the blistering heat which extended from the Rockies to the eastern seaboard all last week totaled 184.

Troy, N. Y., Aug. 31.—(AP)—David B. Plum, publisher of The Record Newspapers, was killed in a fall at the newspaper plant. Plum, 78, was inspecting an addition to the building when he fell 20 feet from the second floor into a pit where a new press is to be installed. He was pronounced dead by a physician. Dwight Marvin, editor of The Record Newspapers, said Plum probably suffered an attack of vertigo or made a misstep. Plum was on his daily tour of the plant when the fatality occurred. ALIIQUIPPA DRUGGIST
TESTS NEW TAX LAW

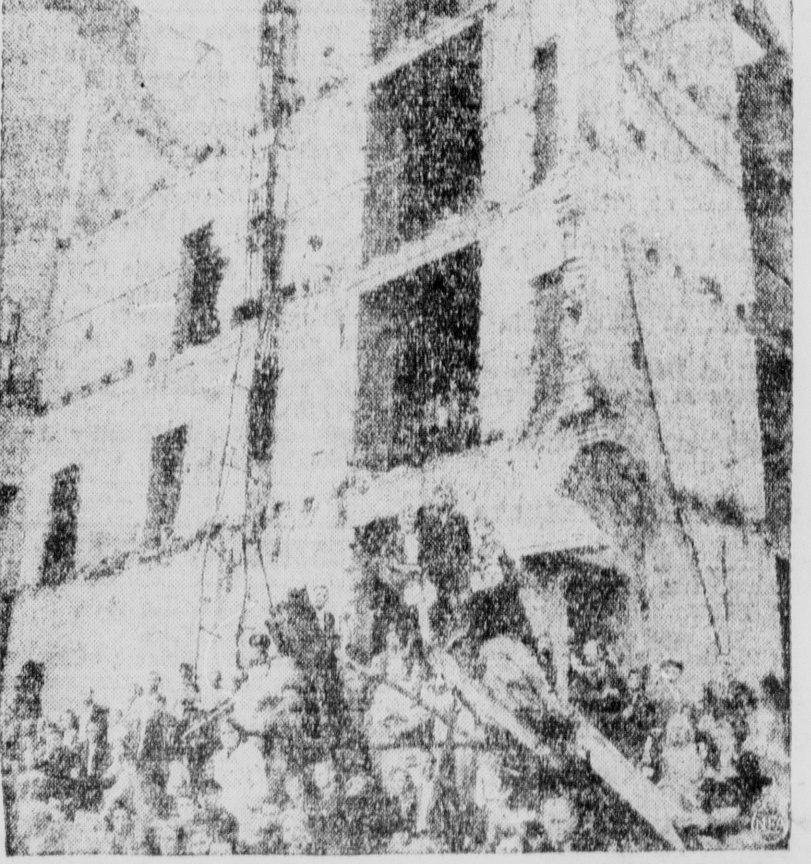

Aliquippa, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Druggist George L. Kiefer who asked the court tes of Aliquippa's new wage tax today had his wish. The borough yesterday filed an information against the former burgess charging him with failure to make a declaration of his anticipated profits. Kiefer has contended the four mill tax, passed last May 1, is unconstitutional. He previously wrote the borough council he would not abide by it and asked that a court test be made of its legality. Squire Walter S. Cameron, before whom the information was made, did not set a date for a hearing.

Fires At Farm

Macomb, Ill., Aug. 31.—(AP)—More than 100 fires on the Charles Valley Farm, the origin of which baffled scientists and experts for nearly two weeks, were set by a 13-year-old member of the family, a deputy state fire marshal said yesterday. John Burgard, the deputy, said the girl, Womet McNeil, told authorities she touched off the fires when other family members weren't watching her. Burgard said Womet told him she set the fires because she wanted to be sent to live with her divorced mother, Mrs. Leona Magle of Bloomington, Ill. Womet and her brother, Arthur, 8, were placed in the custody of their father, Arthur McNeil, when their parents were divorced in 1943. McNeil and the children have been living with the Wilkeys. Burgard said the girl told him Mrs. Wilkey is McNeil's sister, and she reasoned that if she burned down the houses used by her father and her aunt and uncle, she would have to be sent to her mother. The rash of blazes attracted nationwide attention. They led to speculation that the flames were caused by radio-activity, gas, fly spray or roach paste.

INVESTIGATE ILLNESS
AMONG GUARDSMEN

Indiantown Gap, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general, said today he believed "the extreme heat" was the cause of the sudden illness of some 50 Pennsylvania National Guardsmen last week. The guardsmen, all from Philadelphia, became ill at the end of summer maneuvers at Camp Pendleton, Va. Thirteen were stricken at Warrenton, Va., and the others collapsed after arrival by train in Philadelphia. Weber ordered an investigation into the cause of the illnesses but said today he will not receive a report until later in the week. Coincidentally, he noted that 12,000 guardsmen returned to their homes from the military reservation here after two weeks training without any report of illness.

CATHOLIC PILGRIMS

Nicole Cardinal Canali, president of the pontifical commission for the government of Vatican City, celebrated the mass, after which Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, of Boston, distributed communion to other pilgrims. Cardinal Canali spoke a few words of welcome to the pilgrims, the first to come to Rome from America since the end of the war. The travellers were luncheon guests of the North American College at noon. Bishop Martin J. O'Connor of Scranton, Pa., rector of the college, described new building plans of the institution.

indicated that the bulk of future raftees will come from the 22 and 23-year old groups due to register after this week. The Army—which is getting all its November inductees—is expected to ask for another 10,000 raftees in December, later stepping up the pace to about 30,000 a month. Secretary of Defense Forrestal announcing the Army's first all yesterday said the navy and air force are counting on filling their manpower quotas with volunteers, at least through next year. The opening day of registration brought only scattered reports of organized opposition to the peace-time draft revival. About a dozen youths who said they were "peace makers" put on a demonstration in Columbus, Ohio. One picket line formed in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Draft board officials there reported the pickets said they were members of the Peace and Conciliation Fraternity with headquarters in New York. Unlike the wartime draft operations, the 1948 version was being carried out swiftly. Each registrant needed only about 10 to 15 minutes to fill out the postcard size forms.

to the house committee, pointed out Peters at yesterday's hearing as the man he was talking about in connection with the alleged spying in the government. The long-sought Peters—54 years old, a native of Czechoslovakia and now a resident of New York—was handed a congressional subpoena as he appeared for a deportation hearing early in the day. He was subpoenaed under the name of Peters, but identified himself as Alexander Stevens. Although it was balked by Peters, the sub-committee heard testimony yesterday by Chambers that he got a $6,000-a-year "boondoggling" job with the government in 1937 through Communist influence. Chambers said he was being paid as a Communist underground courier at that time. The witness said he landed the job in the research department of the Railroad Retirement Board "within 24 hours" after applying. Calling the job "boondoggling," Chambers said he was warned not to work too hard, "or the job would end."

Chambers said he landed the job through Peters and two men who he said were government employees at that time—Abraham George Silverman and Irving Kaplan. Chambers said Silverman was a Communist. Elizabeth Bentley, a star witness before the committee, previously had named Silverman as a member of a Russian spy ring she said operated in U. S. government circles during the war. Rep. Nixon said Sunday that Chambers' testimony would show a link between the pre-war Communist underground he described and the wartime ring Miss Bentley told about.

Steelers' Tackle Gangrene Victim

Meadville, Aug. 31.—(AP)—James E. Worle, superintendent of Meadville City Hospital, says the unexpected death of Ralph Calogian, 26-year old tackle of the Pittsburgh Steelers, was due to a condition which existed before he underwent an appendectomy Saturday.

Calogian, who had complained of stomach cramps for several days, died Sunday about 12 hours after the operation. Yesterday, Worle said an autopsy disclosed the intestine caused by a blood clot which blocked the flow of blood in a vein. He said the condition had existed for some time before the operation.

Meanwhile, the entire squad of the National Football League team prepared to leave the nearby Cambridge Springs training camp site for Calogian's funeral tomorrow at his home in Smithton.

A solemn high mass will be sung at St. Timothy's R. C. church and military rites will be accorded at the grave. The tackle saw considerable combat action as a lieutenant in the Marine Corps in the southwest Pacific.

Pirates But 3½ Games Behind Bum

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates are in third place and only 3½ games behind league leading Brooklyn Dodgers today and it was two ex-dodgers who helped put them there.

The Pirates defeated the Boston Braves for the third straight time, 2 to 1, last night thanks to the pitching of old Fritz Ostermuller, a Brooklyn castoff, and the hitting of Dixie Walker, once the pride of Flatbush.

Walker hit a home run in the first inning with Danny Murtaugh on base to prove the winning runs Ostermuller bested Johnny Sain in the slab duel to gain his seventh win against six defeats.

The Pirates now have won 13 of their last 26 games.

Large Crowd Greet Hillman, New Coach of Red Jackets At Practice Drill Last Night

Bill Hillman, 190-pound Kane grader who formerly played for the Detroit Lions, was greeted by a large turnout of local sports fans last night when he took over the coaching reins of the Warren Red Jackets during practice drills on Beatty field.

Hillman, who will probably hold down one of the halfback posts along with his coaching duties, concentrated his attention on the ball carriers, while his assistant, Harry Rosequist, prepped the linemen.

From all indications, the team will have a very fast backfield, with likely starters being Hillman and Dave Lopez in the halfback slots, Don Bailey as signal caller and Paul Pollock as fullback.

The squad is also expected to have a left line that will average 225 pounds per man.

The gridders will get another tough workout tonight on Beatty field in preparation for their opening game of the season against the Creighton Tigers next Sunday afternoon on the new War Memorial field. The game will start at 2 p. m.

Bench Strength Paying Big Dividends For The Dodgers

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Bench strength," that's one of the reasons Burt Shotton's ferocious gentlemen lead the National League today.

Shotton's front-running Brooklyn Dodgers are deep in reserves and the canny Brook pilot is employing his substitutes to the utmost advantage in his bid to bring the pennant to Brooklyn for the second consecutive year.

Second stringers enjoyed a field day at the expense of the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday as the Dodgers took a doubleheader, 6-5 and 6-1, to increase their lead to a game and a half over the runner-up Boston Braves.

Trailing, 5-2, going into the ninth inning of the first game before 35,503 fans, the reserves swung into action and sparked a four-run rally that enabled the Dodgers to win.

The Dodgers didn't have to call for help in the second game as Lefty Joe Hatten held the Cards to five hits in racking up his 11th victory.

The setbacks dumped the Cards into fourth place, two percentage points behind the Pittsburgh Pirates who moved into third as a result of their 2-1 triumph over the Boston Braves in a night game at Pittsburgh.

Two former Dodgers, Dixie Walker, one time darling of Flatbush followers, and Pitcher Fritz Ostermuller teamed up to beat the Braves, who now have lost six of their last seven starts.

Walker drove in both Pittsburgh runs when he clouted his second homer of the season with Danny Murtaugh on base in the first inning. Murtaugh got on via a single to stretch his consecutive game hitting streak to 17.

The Pirates, who have won 18 out of their last 26 games are three and a half games off the pace, the same distance as the Cardinals.

Only three and a half games separate the top four teams in the American League's pennant chase.

The runner-up New York Yankees moved to within a game of Boston's pace-setting Red Sox, who were idle yesterday, by beating the Detroit Tigers, 3-0, in a night game at the Yankee Stadium. Frank Shea stopped the Tigers on one hit.

The Yankees scored all of their runs in the first inning with Joe DiMaggio driving in one marker and Yogi Berra two.

Cleveland's third place Indians pulled to within a game and a half of the Red Sox as Satchel Paige pitched the Tribe to a 10-1 seven-hit victory over the Senators in a night game at Washington.

Joe Garmon sparked Cleveland's 13-run attack against four pitchers with a triple, double and single.

At Philadelphia, the last place Chicago White Sox scored five runs in the ninth inning with two out to upset the fourth place Athletics, 9-6.

Singles by Tony Lupien, Luke Appling, Flash Wright and doubles by Finch Hitter Ralph Weigel and Dave Philley featured Chicago's rally against losing pitcher Joe Coleman and Lou Brissie. The A's now trail the field by three and a half games.

LACY MIDGETS TOP MCCLINTOCK 10 TO 4

Lacy School continued to dominate the show in the second half of the Midget Baseball League by routing McClintock School, 10 to 4, at the Russell field.

Ross and Cook shared mound duty for the victors and held the West Siders to three safeties. T. Graziano was the losing hurler.

Second half standings of the Midget Loop:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Lacy	4	0	1.000
Starbuck	3	1	.750
South Street	2	1	.667
Johnson	2	3	.400
East Street	1	3	.250
McClintock	0	4	.000

Game Schedule:
Tomorrow—McClintock vs. East Street.
Friday—Lacy vs. South Street.

In 1946, New York state residents had an aggregate income of $22,895,000,000.

Baseball, Softball Scraps Are Slated

Two fast contests tomorrow night highlight the activities of the district sports scene.

A baseball match on Wilder field will pair the National Forge nine against the Glendora Coffee team, champions of the Sunset League. The match was scheduled at the request of local fans, and a large turnout is expected.

It will be played on a winner-take-all basis after expenses are deducted.

The second scrap will pair the Knights of Columbus against the First Methodists in the second game of a best-out-of-three series for the Church League championship. The scrap is slated for Beatty field.

Both contests will start at 6 p. m. DST.

RELIEF PITCHER IS TAKEN ON BY THE A's

Philadelphia, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics have signed Walt Holbrook, 31-year-old veteran right-hander formerly with the Washington Senators, as a relief pitcher. Holbrook, who reported to the A's today, served principally as a relief hurler while with the Senators in 1944-45. In adding the Astoria L. I. moundman to their staff, the A's brought their strength to the full 25-player limit.

Walker "Peepuls Cherce" In Pitt.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Dixie Walker is showing Pittsburgh Pirate fans what made him the "peepuls cherce" for so long in Brooklyn.

Old Dixie came here as part of one of the numerous Brooklyn-Pittsburgh trading parties. He announced he was more than satisfied with the switch. Now the Bucco fans are too.

But until a month ago the bleacher bugs thought they were sitting in on the final effort of a great ball player.

Dixie wasn't hitting and he showed his 38 years in the outfield.

Then they tossed the chips down following the form players. The Bucco found themselves in the pennant race with only a month to go.

Dixie took a hand.

He's boosted his average more than 20 points and he's been fielding like a colt. Batting .266 on July 30 he now sports a highly respectable .290.

Last night he belted his second home run into the right field stands with a mate on to win the game against the Braves and Johnny Sain. In the third inning he made a great running catch on a hard chance.

JERSEY TWIRLER IS LEADING HIS LEAGUE

Jersey City, N. J., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Sam Webb, rookie right-hander of the Jersey City Giants, has a good chance to lead International League pitchers in most games won. Webb turned in his 17th victory as against 13 losses last night in pitching the up-and-coming Giants to a 4-1 six-hit triumph over the Syracuse Chiefs.

The 23-year old Webb won 13 games for Erie of the Middle Atlantic League in 1946, his first year in the game. He topped that mark last season when he won 19 for Sioux City of the Western League.

YANKIES MOVE WEST

Chicago.—(AP)—The Chicago Rockets of the All-America Football Conference have been bolstered this season with the addition of five players from the New York Yankees of the same circuit. The quintet which has changed uniforms is composed of fullbacks Eddie Prokop and Dewey Proctor, tackles Nate Johnson and Chuck Elliott and end, Harry Burrus. Johnson was an all-conference selection with the Yanks.

BOOKING VARIETY

Miami.—(AP)—Of the 62 touchdowns in 14 Orange Bowl New Year's games, 25 have come on forward passes, 20 on line smash-es, 12 on end runs, two on blocked punts and one each on a lateral pass, a kickoff return and a pass interception. Eighteen different schools have counted touchdowns in the games.

K. of C. Tallies Nine Runs In First Inning, Coasts To 16-8 Win Over Church Squad

Knights of Columbus punched across nine runs in the opening frame and coasted to a 16-8 victory over the First Methodists in the first game of a best-out-of-three series for the championship of the Church-YMCA Softball League.

The scrap was played on Beatty field before a large turnout of spectators.

Previously the same two clubs had battled to two deadlocks in the title series.

Second game in the series is slated for Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock on Beatty field.

Pappalardo, hurler for the Knights, fanned two men, issued three walks and gave up nine hits. Sven Forslund toed the rubber for the First Methodists, and was belted for 21 safeties.

Steelers' Tackle Gangrene Victim

Meadville, Aug. 31.—(AP)—James E. Werle, superintendent of Meadville City Hospital, says the unexpected death of Ralph Calca, 26-year old tackle of the Pittsburgh Steelers, was due to a condition which existed before he underwent an appendectomy Saturday.

Calca, who had complained of stomach cramps for several days, died Sunday about 12 hours after the operation. Yesterday, Werle said an autopsy disclosed death resulted from gangrene of the intestine caused by a blood clot which blocked the flow of blood in a vein. He said the condition had existed for some time before the operation.

Meanwhile, the entire squad of the National Football League team prepared to leave the nearby Cambridge Springs training camp site for Calca's funeral tomorrow at his home in Smithton.

A solemn high mass will be sung at St. Timothy's R. C. church and military rites will be accorded at the grave. The tackle saw considerable combat action as a lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps in the southwest Pacific.

Pirates But 3 1/2 Games Behind Bum

Pittsburgh, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates are in third place and only 3½ games behind league leading Brooklyn Dodgers today and it was two ex-dodgers who helped put them there.

The Pirates defeated the Boston Braves for the third straight time, 2 to 1, last night thanks to the pitching of old Fritz Ostermuller, a Brooklyn castoff, and the hitting of Dixie Walker, once the pride of Flatbush.

Walker hit a home run in the first inning with Danny Murtagh on base to provide the winning run. Ostermuller bested Johnny Sain in the slug duel to gain his seventh win against six defeats.

The Pirates now have won 18 of their last 26 games.

YOUR TELEPHONE IS MORE USEFUL THAN EVER!

Perhaps you didn't realize it, but your telephone is a more useful instrument than it used to be.

Why? Because you can reach more people, and because more people can reach you. More of your friends and neighbors have telephone service than ever before.

Although we're expanding telephone facilities at a mighty fast pace, we couldn't begin to serve the number of families we do now without party-line service. The party line makes it possible for more people to have telephone service . . . sooner.

And remember: Party-line service is good service, particularly when party-line neighbors share the line considerably. You're a good party-line neighbor when you keep calls brief . . . and when you space calls out a bit, to give the other fellow a chance. Courtesy pays; you'll find these favors returned.

A MAN IN THE HOUSE

By Florence Stuart

Chapter 25

CARL said: "You crazy idiot, you darling. Of course I love you." When they had finished dinner, they went into the living room with their coffee and Carl sat on the divan and held Jane in his arms and made love to her for a little while.

But at nine o'clock he got up. He had to go up to his study, to over some papers. He worked that night until three.

When he did take a few hours off, plan something for them to do together, something invariably seemed to come up to spoil it.

There was the week-end in Washington which Carl had planned. He had made hotel reservations, selected a time when there was a show they both wanted to see. They were to drive up early Saturday morning.

Jane had never lost her little-girl enthusiasm over a trip. Just the thought of going somewhere, staying at a hotel, excited her. She would look forward to it for days ahead, plan what she would take with her, what she would wear to travel in.

She had left her packing until that Friday evening, and she wanted Carl to help her with it. He was a perfect genius at folding dresses with layers of tissue paper so that there was never a wrinkle.

They had just got off to a good start when Helen Talbot arrived and Jane, already edgy, went into a minor rage. The girl had been a perfect nuisance of late, she and her thesis. Even Carl seemed to be getting a little fed up with her. She was getting positively bold, the way she kept running to the house, asking for Carl. "Oh, Mrs. Whittier, is Professor Whittier in?" I know you think I'm a perfect nuisance, but this paper is so terribly important to me. I do want it to be good. Your husband has been the sweetest thing about helping me. And I've just run up against a snag, something I want to ask him about. It's so essential to have all my facts accurate."

Idiot. Pest. Nuisance. Why didn't Carl tell her off and have done with it?

Jane went down to open the door that evening. When she saw who it was she said, "Oh, it's you, Helen."

It was the same old story. "Oh, Mrs. Whittier—"

Jane said coldly: "We're awfully busy, Helen. We're going away for a few days. We put so much off until the last minute—"

Helen couldn't take a hint.

Jane left her standing in the front hall while she went back upstairs to Carl. "It's that girl Helen," she said shortly. "You'll have to go down. But I warn you, Carl. Get rid of her in a hurry. This is one night when I can't take a long dose of Helen."

Carl went down, and it was two hours before Helen left. Jane, standing at the top of the stairs, heard them talking in the living room. "I wanted to get a lot of work done on it over the week-end. Professor. And there's this last part I'm not sure about. If you'd check it over for me."

Jane fidgeted and squirmed. She went back into the bedroom, lit a cigarette. She felt her blood pressure going up and her hands getting chilly. She could do the packing, herself, she supposed. But she'd lost interest in it. She was too annoyed. By the time Carl came back upstairs she was ready to cry with anger, and she'd lost interest in the trip. "I don't want to go," she said. "Packing, getting ready, was half of the fun. And now that's all spoiled. You let that girl spoil it."

"Now, baby—"

"You needn't 'baby' me. I mean it. I'm furious. You could have got rid of her if you'd tried. All you had to say—"

"I can't be rude to people, Jane. I can't refuse to help someone who asks for my help."

"Well, okay, you can spend tomorrow and Sunday helping that girl for all I care. I don't want to go away. Not now I don't. I tell you, it's all spoiled." And she began to cry.

"Now, honey," Carl said. "I'm not going and that's final."

They did go, of course. But the trip had been robbed of its fun before they started and they never managed to get it back again.

It was ten days or so before Christmas that Jane decided they ought to give a party. First she talked it over with Carl, who raised no objections. "Go ahead, if you want to," he said.

"I thought a Christmas Eve party," Jane said. "That would be fun. We could have some of the younger faculty crowd. And some of the kids who can't go home for Christmas. You're sure you don't mind, Carl? You aren't too tired to bother with a party?"

"No," Carl said. "I'm not too tired. I think it's rather a nice idea, Jane."

A day or so later Ted had some news for her.

The night before Pauline Clark's husband had had a stroke. Had Jane heard about it?

"She's asked me to move back to their house for the time being."

"Oh," Jane said. She looked at Ted. "Are you going?"

"I have to," he said. "What else can I do?"

He touched Jane's hand, gave her an odd look. "Maybe it's a good thing—for us, honey. It will help make the break by easy stages."

YOUR TELEPHONE IS MORE USEFUL THAN EVER!

Perhaps you didn't realize it, but your telephone is a more useful instrument than it used to be.

Why? Because you can reach more people, and because more people can reach you. More of your friends and neighbors have telephone service than ever before.

Although we're expanding telephone facilities at a mighty fast pace, we couldn't begin to serve the number of families we do now without party-line service. The party line makes it possible for more people to have telephone service . . . sooner.

And remember: Party-line service is good service, particularly when party-line neighbors share the line considerably. You're a good party-line neighbor when you keep calls brief . . . and when you space calls out a bit, to give the other fellow a chance. Courtesy pays; you'll find these favors returned.

A MAN IN THE HOUSE

By Florence Stuart

Chapter 25
CARL said: "You crazy idiot, you darling. Of course I love you." When they had finished dinner, they went into the living room with their coffee and Carl sat on the divan and held Jane in his arms and made love to her for a little while.

But at nine o'clock he got up. He had to go up to his study, go over some papers. He worked that night until three.

When he did take a few hours off, plan something for them to do together, something invariably seemed to come up to spoil it.

There was the week-end in Washington which Carl had planned. He had made hotel reservations, selected a time when there was a show they both wanted to see. They were to drive up early Saturday morning.

Jane had never lost her little-girl enthusiasm over a trip. Just the thought of going somewhere, staying at a hotel, excited her. She would look forward to it for days ahead, plan what she would take with her, what she would wear to travel in.

She had left her packing until that Friday evening and she wanted Carl to help her with it. He was a perfect genius at folding dresses with layers of tissue paper so that there was never a wrinkle.

They had just got off to a good start when Helen Talbot arrived and Jane, already edgy, went in to a minor rage. The girl had been a perfect nuisance of late, she and her thesis. Even Carl seemed to be getting a little fed up with her. She was getting positively bold, the way she kept running to the house, asking for Carl. "Oh, Mrs. Whittier, is Professor Whittier in? I know you think I'm a perfect nuisance, but this paper is so terribly important to me. I do want it to be good. Your husband has been the sweetest thing about helping me. And I've just run up against a snag, something I want to ask him about. It's so essential to have all my facts accurate."

Idiot. Pest. Nuisance. Why didn't Carl tell her off and have done with it?

Jane went down to open the door that evening. When she saw who it was she said, "Oh, it's you, Helen."

It was the same old story. "Oh, Mrs. Whittier—"

Jane said coldly: "We're awfully busy, Helen. We're going away for a few days. We put so much off until the last minute—"

Helen couldn't take a hint. Jane left her standing in the front hall while she went back upstairs to Carl. "It's that girl Helen," she said shortly. "You'll have to go down. But I warn you, Carl. Get rid of her in a hurry. This is one night when I can't take a long dose of Helen."

Carl went down, and it was two hours before Helen left. Jane, standing at the top of the stairs, heard them talking in the living room. "I wanted to get a lot of work done on it over the week-end, Professor. And there's this last part I'm not sure about. If you'd check it over for me . . ."

Jane fidgeted and squirmed. She went back into the bedroom, lit a cigarette. She felt her blood pressure going up and her hands getting chilly. She could do the packing herself, she supposed. But she'd lost interest in it. She was too annoyed. By the time Carl came back upstairs she was ready to cry with anger, and she'd lost interest in the trip. "I don't want to go," she said. "Packing, getting ready, was half of the fun. And now that's all spoiled. You let that girl spoil it."

"Now, baby—"

"You needn't 'baby' me. I mean it. I'm furious. You could have got rid of her if you'd tried. All you had to say—"

"I can't be rude to people, Jane. I can't refuse to help someone who asks for my help."

"Well, okay, you can spend tomorrow and Sunday helping that girl for all I care. I don't want to go away. Not now I don't. I tell you, it's all spoiled." And she began to cry.

"Now, honey," Carl said. "I'm not going and that's final."

They did go, of course. But the trip had been robbed of its fun before they started and they never managed to get it back again.

It was ten days or so before Christmas that Jane decided they ought to give a party. First she talked it over with Carl, who raised no objections. "Go ahead if you want to," he said.

"I thought a Christmas Eve party," Jane said. "That would be fun. We could have some of the younger faculty crowd. And some of the kids who can't go home for Christmas. You're sure you don't mind, Carl? You aren't too tired to bother with a party?"

"No," Carl said. "I'm not too tired. I think it's rather a nice idea, Jane."

A day or so later Ted had some news for her.

The night before Pauline Clark's husband had had a stroke. Had Jane heard about it?

No, she hadn't heard. "She's asked me to move back to their house for the time being."

"Oh," Jane said. She looked at Ted. "Are you going?"

"I have to," he said. "What else can I do?"

He touched Jane's hand, gave her an odd look. "Maybe it's good thing—for us, honey. It will help make the break by easy stages."
